

Häcker Kitchens welcomes six kitchen industry professionals to Rödinghausen, Germany for an unforgettable experience, celebrating the intersection of design, innovation and German craftsmanship.

Häcker Kitchens announces its inaugural "A Taste of Germany" experience

(Miami, FL) September 2024.

Häcker Kitchens, the leading German manufacturer of modern kitchen cabinetry and furnishings, is thrilled to announce the inaugural "A Taste of Germany" experience, set to take place from Sunday, September 22nd, to Tuesday, September 24th, 2024. This exclusive event will bring together a distinguished group of six U.S. interior designers and journalists for an immersive experience into the heart of German kitchen design.

The "A Taste of Germany" trip coincides with Häcker Kitchens' In-House Exhibition, running from September 21st to September 27th, 2024. This annual event, hosted at Häcker Kitchens sprawling Rödinghausen, Germany headquarters, spans over 40,000 square feet of showroom space, showcasing more than 40 curated live kitchen vignettes. Attendees of the In-House Exhibition are invited to explore Häcker Kitchens' diverse range of colors, styles and technical innovations, gaining inspiration and insight into the brand's latest offerings.

During the trip, guests of "A Taste of Germany" will not only attend the In-House Exhibition, but also participate in specialized workshops, tour Häcker Kitchens' of state-of-the-art showroom and production facilities and receive an exclusive preview of the innovative products set to launch in 2025.

"We are excited to host this profound group of designers and journalists for our first 'A Taste of Germany' trip," notes Andreas Gommeringer, President of Häcker Kitchens North America. "This event reflects our commitment to fostering international connections and sharing our passion for kitchen design with thought leaders from around the world."

Häcker Kitchens continues to experience significant global growth, with a steadily expanding presence in North America. With a growing network of dealers and showrooms across the U.S., Canada, and Central America, Häcker Kitchens is delivering modern kitchen designs to an increasing number of North American consumers. The "A Taste of Germany" trip provides a unique opportunity for industry peers from across the U.S. to engage with fellow design professionals who share a passion for quality materials and exceptional design, while celebrating the craftsmanship of German cabinetry and kitchen furnishings.
